

SOCIETY FOR THE STUDY OF CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY

FOUNDERS' CIRCLE PRIZE

CALL FOR PAPERS

Established in 2012 on the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Society for the Study of Christian Spirituality, the Founders' Circle Prize is awarded to recognize the best essay in the field of Christian spirituality submitted by an emerging scholar. Students in Master's and doctoral programs, recent graduates (within the past five years), post-doctoral fellows, and pre-tenure faculty are invited to submit their work.

The winner will be offered the opportunity to present the essay at a special session of the AAR/SBL in Denver and will be recognized at the Society's annual meeting on Saturday morning, November 19. Moreover, the prize essay will also be considered for publication in Spiritus: A Journal of Christian Spirituality. The winner will also receive a cash award and a two-year membership to the Society.

Entries (4,000-5,000 words, in a recognizable scholarly style) should be submitted to Emerging Scholars Co-Chairs, August Higgins (jhiggins@ost.edu) or Paul Houston Blankenship (paul.houston.blankenship@gmail.com). For more information on the Society, please visit our website: <http://sscs.press.jhu.edu>

submissions due:
may 15, 2022